INTRODUCTION

NSW Child, Family and Community Peak Aboriginal Corporation (AbSec) is the NSW Aboriginal child and family peak organisation, working to empower Aboriginal children, young people, families and communities impacted by the child protection system, as well as support a quality Aboriginal community-controlled child and family sector to deliver needed supports in Aboriginal communities across the state.

AbSec provides child protection and out-of-home care policy advice on issues affecting Aboriginal children, young people, families and carers, and we are informed by our membership base and community to ensure that Aboriginal viewpoints are included in government policy and reform directions.

OUR VISION

Our vision is that all Aboriginal children and young people are looked after in safe, thriving Aboriginal families and communities and are raised strong in spirit and identity, with every opportunity for lifelong wellbeing and connection to culture, surrounded by holistic supports.

In working towards our vision, we are guided by our Strategic Plan 2019–2022, which sets out the strategic direction 2019-2022.

OUR OBJECTIVES

- Work towards achieving self-determination for all Aboriginal people and communities, and building a safe, secure and caring environment for their children and young people that is surrounded by culture
- Support Aboriginal organisations in delivering quality holistic supports for all Aboriginal children, young people, families and carers, people with disability and communities
- Provide and support opportunities for continual improvement, learning, growth and change for organisations delivering for Aboriginal children, young people, families, people with disability and their communities, recognising the principles of self-determination
- Represent and inform government and key stakeholders on the issues facing Aboriginal children, young people, families, carers and communities, particularly in accessing quality holistic supports for lifelong wellbeing surrounded by culture
- Support Aboriginal workforce development to ensure a strong and capable workforce for supporting Aboriginal children, young people, families, people with disability and their communities

PRINCIPLES THAT GUIDE US

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT AND RESPECT – we will acknowledge the diversity of all Aboriginal nations and respect traditional owners of the land, with our actions being informed by the voices of Elders and the cultural knowledge of communities

PROFESSIONALISM AND INTEGRITY – we will act with the highest of professionalism for our communities, ensuring our integrity will not be compromised in striving for the provision of quality, culturally-responsive and culturally accessible supports

SELF-DETERMINATION – we will ensure that our focus is underpinned by the rights of Aboriginal people to make decisions that impact their lives; recognising the interests of Aboriginal children, young people, families and carers, and communities in all that we do

INDEPENDENCE AND SOLUTIONS-FOCUS – we will serve the interests of Aboriginal children, young people, families, communities and the organisations that support them to deliver holistic approaches to issues affecting them

TRANSPARENCY AND COMMITMENT – we will remain committed to our Aboriginal children, families and organisations in everything we do, ensuring their interests are promoted at every opportunity, and that our actions towards achieving this is always clear and transparent

THE ROLE

AbSec has recently undergone a period of renewal and is seeking a new CEO to focus strongly on advocacy and programs.

This is a fantastic opportunity for a passionate, highly skilled CEO with outstanding advocacy skills and drive to make a real difference to Aboriginal children, young people, families and communities.

In this role you will report directly to Board of Directors and, in consultation with the sector, develop and implement an AbSec advocacy strategy to effect real change.

The key objectives of the role also include to:

- Develop and maintain key stakeholder relationships within the sector;
- Develop and implement key programs and provide support to member organisations;
- Oversee all functions within the organisation and provide direction and guidance to the organisation as a whole; and
- Lead the development of the AbSec Philanthropic program;
- Ensure and contribute to the operational and strategic decision-making process and provide authoritative advice to the Board of Directors in relation to operational matters and company performance.

An understanding of Aboriginal issues and the importance of cultural connections for Aboriginal children, young people, families and communities is essential as is extensive experience in management at a senior leadership level, preferably with an Aboriginal community-controlled organisation.

If you also have:

- Aboriginality with a demonstrated understanding of the issues facing Aboriginal families in the delivery of quality services to meet outcomes for children in a sustainable and viable way.
- Tertiary qualification in Community Services, Communication, Management, Finance, Health or similar discipline
- Outstanding advocacy skills with a proven record of results.
- Demonstrated knowledge of strategic planning and achievement of strategic objectives

- Demonstrated experience in ensuring an effective management system, policy and procedure framework and financial system for an organisation
- Demonstrated ability to lead and develop a team at a senior level
- Demonstrated ability to work proactively and in partnership with a Board of Directors to achieve organisational objectives
- High level of computer literacy; sound working knowledge of Microsoft Office software
- Ability to hold all relevant security clearances such as National Police Check, Working with Children clearance etc.

We would love to hear from you.

A generous salary of up to $170,000 plus superannuation, motor vehicle, mobile telephone and laptop is available. As a non-profit organisation AbSec can provide salary packaging benefits meaning you increase your take home pay.
